

The European Section of the International Society for Respiratory Protection is proud to announce the

21st INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

22 - 26 September 2024
Oxford, United Kingdom

“Respiratory Protection, Use and Users”

The conference venue is in the famous historic University city of Oxford at

Pembroke College Oxford, UK

The conference is a great opportunity to share the very latest in respiratory protection research, innovations, applications, and many other topics, with the international community. The conference will include presentations, posters and an exhibition and will offer many networking opportunities, serving as a platform for you to share your research, ideas and products with others involved in respiratory protection.

CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS

The technical programme will cover all aspects of respiratory protection including:

Users	Use
Industrial Applications	Respiratory Hazards and Diseases
CBRN / HAZMAT	Fundamentals of Filtration
Healthcare & First Responders	Products and Devices
Domestic Preparedness / Counter Terrorist Applications	Standards, Regulations and Guidance
Radiological Protection & Civil Nuclear Industry	Selection and Use
Industrial Applications	Standard Testing and Measurement
Physiology & Human Interactions	Fit Testing
	Protection Factors

We are open to receive abstracts from the 2nd January 2024 and up until the deadline of the 30th June 2024.

Abstracts should be submitted electronically in English to oxford.technical@isrp.com as an editable Word document and should be no more than 250 words long, excluding the title and the names and affiliations of the authors. You may add up to two images and/or graphs to the abstract to support your work but the whole must not take up more than 1 page of A4. This includes the title and the names and affiliations of the authors (in a larger font) and any references. A virtual booklet will be prepared for delegates containing all the abstracts at one to a page.

Please indicate if you intend to give either an oral presentation or a poster. We will notify authors of our decision within one month of receiving the abstract.

Those resident in the geographical area covered by the European Section who submit a successful abstract may be eligible for the Bob Bentley Bursary to help them attend the conference. Check the European Section website for details.
